Guest Travel Protection Program: Canceling your journey can be very costly, as we have to adhere to the cancellation fee schedule above. We highly recommend our travel protection plan, which will protect you from penalties if you cancel for a covered reason. In addition, there is coverage for trip interruption, trip delay and protection for emergency evacuation, accident, and sickness medical expense. Details concerning coverage, limitations, provisions, exclusions and pre-existing conditions will be mailed in your reservation confirmation packet. The premium is automatically billed on your invoice, but the plan does not take effect until payment of the premium is received. Premiums are non-refundable.

Cancellation by International Expeditions: If a journey is canceled by International Expeditions because of extraordinary conditions, all monies paid to International Expeditions will be refunded in full. International Expeditions cannot accept responsibility for any other expenses incurred for preparing for the journey, including non-refundable airline tickets not purchased through International Expeditions.

International Expeditions Air: Booking your air with International Expeditions offers many advantages, from special fares to lenient change and refund policies. We can schedule the most convenient flight times for the start of your journey, booking your return flight home with your scheduling preferences in mind. We will work with you to offer the best fares and most suitable schedules. Note that International Expeditions cannot be held liable, assume responsibility, or accept claims with regard to seat assignments, flight changes, cancellations or any loss or damages which may be incurred when using the services of airlines. Tickets will be mailed with final tour documents. There is a modest ticketing fee on tickets we issue.

Our Published Rates: Changes in tour rates are rare, and caused by extraordinary circumstances outside International Expeditions' control. In the rare event that a tour rate should increase, cancellation is allowed without penalty. All prices are per person, based on double occupancy. All prices and airfares are subject to change.

Schedule of mail-outs: On receipt of your reservation, you will be mailed a confirmation package. A final packet of information is mailed 30-21 days prior to departure, with airline tickets, final itinerary, guest list, name tag, and passport holder. Final packets are not mailed until all payments and liability forms are received.

Travel Documents: A U.S. passport valid six months beyond your anticipated date of return to the U.S. is essential. Requirements for visas, tourist cards or immunization certificates vary from country to country. If a visa is required, we will send you the appropriate form and will help you obtain the visa. Those with non-U.S. passports should contact the appropriate consulates for details. Those traveling with minors need to contact the international carrier for necessary requirements. Usually a minor must have a picture ID and/or passport or birth certificate. It is the responsibility of the guest to have all necessary information upon departure.

Health Requirements: Immunization requirements vary from country to country. Please consult your local public health board, or the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) in Atlanta (404-332-4559 or www.cdc.gov/travel), for current information on suggested or required immunizations. Certain immunizations may need to be administered up to one month prior to your trip. Some countries require certain immunization certificates for entry.

Responsibilities, Terms and Conditions: International Expeditions its affiliates, and cooperating airlines and agencies (here-after referred to as THEY) act only in the capacity of agents in all matters of transportation and tour operation, and their liability is limited to the terms of the airline tickets and/or supplier agreements. On expeditions of this type it is not possible to accommodate persons with severe health problems or physical disabilities. It is the guest's responsibility to judge the appropriateness of these travel activities to their physical capabilities. THEY take no responsibility for special arrangements or problems incurred by guests physically unable to participate in the planned activities. No refund can be made for absence from the tour unless arrangements are made at the time of booking. The right is reserved to decline to accept or retain any person as a tour member for any reason, which affects the operation of the tour or the rights and welfare or enjoyment of the other tour members. THEY will not discriminate against any individual because of race, sex, creed or nationality. A refund of the cost of recoverable land tour and/or air services is the limit of International Expeditions and its affiliates' liability. THEY reserve the right to take photographic or film records of any trip or guest, and may use any record for promotional and/or commercial purposes. All contracts for services provided by International Expeditions and its affiliates are entered into in the state of Alabama and all parties to such contracts submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the state of Alabama.
