

Contest Details

Dates:

January 8 -22, 2016 (postmarked by January 22 or dropped off at the Zoo Membership Office after 3:00pm on January 22, 2016)

Who is Eligible?

All area students in grades K-6 may enter through their school, home school, community group such as scouts or churches, or on their own.

Art Specifications:

Artwork must be done on the official Stegosaurus Coloring Sheet. Students may use crayons, pastels, paint, colored pencil or watercolor. The following information MUST be included on the front of the coloring sheet: name, age, Email, phone.

Judging:

Schools are asked to submit their top three entries for each grade category for final judging. Entries will be judged based on creativity and meeting all art specifications. Contest judges will choose the winner. Winner will be announced by February 5, 2016.

Award Categories/Prizes:

Winning artwork will be used to design the actual life-size Stegosaurus that will be a part of the Dino Discovery - They're Back exhibit. Winner will also receive a plaque and will have their picture taken with the life-size replica of their Stegosaurus design.

Submitting Entries:

Entries may be mailed or dropped off at the Zoo Membership Office after 3:00pm. Entries should be mailed to:

Birmingham Zoo Education Department
Attn: Dino Coloring Contest
2630 Cahaba Road
Birmingham, AL 35223

Questions: education@birminghamzoo.com