Woo at the Zoo this Valentine's Day at the Birmingham Zoo

BIRMINGHAM, AL – On February 14, 2017, the Birmingham Zoo invites guests ages 21 and up to its fourth annual Valentine's Day event, "Woo at the Zoo," from 6-9pm. This event will focus on "love" in the animal kingdom.

New this year, Woo at the Zoo will be held in the Birmingham Zoo's Predator Building. Guests are invited to sip and stroll as they enjoy live music, animal encounters and keeper chats. Participants will be able to learn about courtship of different animals, and see what a dating profile may look like for the different animals participating.

Included in Woo at the Zoo tickets are admission, hors d'oeuvres, beer, wine, a souvenir champagne flute and complimentary glass of champagne, and a souvenir photo. Advance tickets only are available for Woo at the Zoo and can be purchased at www.birminghamzoo.com. Tickets are $80 for a Zoo Member couple, and $100 for a non-member couple.

Approximately 900 animals of 230 species call the Birmingham Zoo home, including sea lions, zebras, rhinos and endangered species from six continents. The Birmingham Zoo is open daily from 9am to 5pm. Regular admission is $16 for adults and $14* for senior citizens and military and $11* for children ages 2-12 (Price not including tax). All Birmingham Zoo Members and children under two-years-old receive free admission.
